Users are important and critical players in protecting these assets and in lessening the risks that can harm Technology Resources. Therefore, Users are required to comply fully with this Policy and to immediately report any violations or suspicious activities to the Principal.

System security is protected in part by the use of passwords. All passwords must be at least eight characters and include alphanumeric and special characters. Users will be required to change their passwords every thirty (30) days. Lincoln Park will maintain a password history that prevents the use of a repetitive password. After three (3) unsuccessful access attempts, an attempted user will be locked out and must contact the Principal or his/her designee. After a period of inactivity, the User will be automatically logged off the system.

Failure to adequately protect or update passwords could result in unauthorized access to personal or Lincoln Park files. Users shall be responsible for safeguarding their passwords for access to Lincoln Park's Technology Resources and for all transactions made using their passwords. Lincoln Park retains access to all material stored on the Technology Resources regardless of whether that material has been encoded with a particular User's password, subject to limitations as set forth in Lincoln Park's policy governing Remote Access and Monitoring of Lincoln Park's Technology Resources, as well as applicable law. Users shall not alter or copy a file belonging to another user without first obtaining permission from the owner of the file. Ability to read, alter, or copy a file belonging to another User does not imply permission to read, alter, or copy that file. Users shall not use the Technology Resources to "snoop" or pry into the affairs of other Users by unnecessarily reviewing the files and e-mails of another.

A User's ability to connect to another computer's system through the network or by any other electronic means shall not imply a right to connect to those systems or to make use of those systems unless specifically authorized by the administrators of those systems and the Principal.

A hold directive will direct all Lincoln Park administration and staff not to delete or destroy any electronic mail or other documentation on a computer as related to a specific student, employee, issue and/or for a specific time period. Failure to follow such a directive could result in negative legal consequences for the User and/or within the actual or threatened litigation. The litigation hold directive will override any records retention schedule that may have otherwise called for the transfer, disposal or destruction of relevant documents until the hold has been lifted by Lincoln Park's attorney.

E-mail and computer accounts of separated employees that have been placed on a litigation hold will be maintained by Lincoln Park until the hold is released. No employee, who has been so notified of a litigation hold, may alter or delete any electronic record that falls within the scope of the hold. Violation of the hold may subject the individual to disciplinary actions, up to and including termination of employment, as well as personal liability for civil and/or criminal sanctions by the courts or law enforcement agencies.

Drafting E-mails

E-mails may appear informal, e-mail messages are sometimes off-hand, like a conversation, and not as carefully thought out as a letter or memorandum. Like any other document, an e-mail message or other computer information can later be used to indicate what a User knew or felt. You should keep this in mind when creating e-mail messages and other documents. Even after you delete an e-mail message or close a computer session, it may still be recoverable and may remain on the system. E-mail communications are discoverable during litigation and, therefore, will have to be turned over to the opposing party unless it is determined to be privileged by Lincoln Park's legal counsel.

Access and distribution of student data is recorded. Questions regarding the disclosure of student information must be directed to the CEO prior to disclosure and must conform to Lincoln Park's student records and confidentiality policies. Unauthorized disclosure, use and dissemination of personal information regarding minors is prohibited.
